President's Message by Larry Gaye

Happy New Year to all of you! Suzanne and I hope you had a wonderful and sane Christmas and Holiday Season.

The Local Committee of the 2009 ANA National Money Show™ to be held in Portland in March 2009 had its initial meeting. The committee under Scott Loos as General Chairman will be fleshing out the job assignments for the various committee heads comprised of members of the two host clubs, The Willamette Coin Club and The PNNA.

As this is just the beginning, much work remains to be accomplished; what makes this totally worthwhile is that the work is one heck of a lot of fun. When you consider it, the preparation for and nature of ANA conventions and money shows is like a cruise. It's not always the destination you remember the most but the people you meet along the way.

The really fun part is you are invited to come along on the trip, there's plenty of room on this cruise ship. Committee chairs are looking for folks to serve on their committees — there is plenty of opportunity to go around and many ways to participate whether you are aboard for one day or the entire voyage. How much time you want to commit is up to you ... a few hours or the whole trip!

For those of you who have done this before in 1998 and 2004, or are ANA National Volunteers, you know what I'm talking about. The action and joy of meeting with your fellow numis-junkies from around the country and the world is indescribable. There are so many activities, coins to look at and people to see you can't go wrong. As a local volunteer you will have unprecedented access to the convention floor, opportunity to work with folks you have read about in the numismatic press, and get to know them on a personal level.

Here is a list of the committees, their chairpersons and how to contact them. Take a look and select your tour guide and ports of call on your cruise to and final destination of the 2009 ANA National Money Show in Portland.

Your fellow numismatists from Oregon and Washington make up the committee. Join us on the cruise, an event you will always remember — your cabin has been reserved! See you soon!

Scholarship Application

Applications for the annual PNNA adult and YN scholarships to attend the 2008 ANA Summer Seminar are attached to this newsletter. Please contact Scott Loos (scottloos@msn.com) for more information, or watch the PNNA website.

2008 PNNA CONVENTION

The PNNA will hold its 2008 spring convention in Tukwila on the weekend of 4-6 April 2008. Note that the 2008 PNNA convention was forced to change dates because of a conflict with the Santa Clara Coin, Stamp & Collectibles Expo. The fall convention has also changed dates, to October 18-19, 2008, with dealer setup on October 17.

Dick Billings will again serve as general chairman for 2008. Dealers who wish to receive a bourse application should contact Scott Loos at PO Box 2210, North Bend, WA 98045, phone 425-831-8789, or E-mail scottloos@msn.com.

Bob Everett Memorial Award

It's time for the committee to select a recipient for the Bob Everett Memorial Award, to be announced (and hopefully presented, if the awardee is present) at the 2008 convention. The recipient need not be a PNNA member; s/he need only be someone who has promoted numismatics in the Pacific Northwest during 2007. Please send your nominations (name and achievements that merit receipt of this award) to one of the committee members: Del Cushing, Dick Billings, Joseph Boling, Larry Gaye and Walt Ostromecki. (Or just send to the PNNA secretary for forwarding.)

More information, including a list of past award recipients, is available on the PNNA website at <http://www.pnna.org/everett.html>.

Exhibits at the 2008 PNNA Convention

PNNA tries to encourage people to exhibit their numismatic specialty. At the Tukwila convention, there will be space available for those who wish to exhibit. Just bring your display to the convention and report to the Exhibit Chairman. You will be registered and given display cases. (Note: advance registration is still recommended to ensure availability of cases, especially for large exhibits.) If you wish to exhibit competitively, you must have your exhibit in place by noon on Saturday. Join the fun, exhibit!

There is also an opportunity to show exhibits at the Boeing Employees Coin Show (January 19-20, 2008); use this show as a proving ground for your April entries. Don't forget that the best exhibitor at the PNNA convention earns $200 toward the expense of taking the winning exhibit to the ANA summer convention in the same year. The next opportunity to exhibit at the national level is in Phoenix, AZ, March 7-9, 2008. The next World's Fair of Money® will be in Baltimore, MD, July 30-August 3, 2008.

Call for Nominations

My, how time flies. It's time once again to elect officers and directors for the next two years. It doesn't seem possible that president Larry Gaye has completed two terms of office already. We must again select leaders who will lead us into the future. Any member of PNNA who wishes to run for an office should have their name submitted for nomination. There will NOT be any automatic nominations. If you are presently serving in a PNNA office and wish to continue, you will need to have your name re-submitted to be listed on the ballot. Official ballots will be included in the second quarter 2008 issue of The Nor'wester to be voted on and mailed to the election chairman. Due to the earlier date of the convention in 2008, there will only be a two week period to mail in your ballots which will be due by March 31st. Results of the election will be announced at the membership meeting during the convention. Nominations are sought for the offices of: president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, as well as 10 directors. Nominations will be accepted by U.S. mail, e-mail or phone as listed below. If you nominate someone other than yourself, be sure that person is willing to serve. Remember, it is during this next term that ANA will have their convention in Portland in 2009, and that will be an exciting time to be an officer of PNNA. Get those nominations sent in to:

Minutes of October 2007 PNNA Board Meeting, Portland, Oregon

The meeting was called to order by PNNA President Larry Gaye at 6:11 PM on October 13, 2007. Other PNNA members and guests in attendance included Eric Holcomb, Mike Sanders, Lisa and Scott Loos, Del Cushing, Dick Billings, Bruce Wonder, Larry Rowe, Rob Anglemier, Joseph Boling, Gawain O'Connor, Phil Lockwood, Greg Franck-Weiby, Howard Spindel, Jerry Bobbe, Walt Ostromecki, Robert Steinegger, Danny Bisgard, Tom Sheehan, Ken Hill.

This will be a short meeting. The April minutes are currently unavailable, and approval is postponed.

It was noted that there were more ANA life members at the meeting than PNNA life members!!

Scott Loos gave the treasurer's report. Our total cash balance is $48,935.15, and revenues exceeded expenses for the year by over $2,000. Motion [L. Loos/Anglemier] to accept the treasurer's report — passed.

Should we make a $50 convention patron donation to the ANA? (It was not paid this year.) No decision — most likely we will resume donations in 2008.

Eric announced that he is moving to Bend, Oregon early in 2008. A full impact analysis of Eric's move on the PNNA will be presented at the January meeting.

The board meeting was adjourned at 6:27 PM, after which Scott Loos convened a very brief meeting of the convention committee for the ANA National Money Show™ in Portland in March of 2009.

Scott was appointed general chairman in Milwaukee, with Larry Gaye as assistant chairman. Larry Rowe is the honorary general chairman pending ANA approval. There will be quarterly committee meetings.

The Willamette Coin Club is the primary host club, with the PNNA as the secondary host. Howard questioned the process for involving the host club (Willamette) in the selection of committee chairs. Scott will explain the process; it is primarily the general chairman's responsibility to appoint the chairs.

Larry Gaye was speechless!

The meeting was adjourned at 6:35 PM.

The next PNNA Board meeting will be at the Boeing Employees' Coin Club annual show on Saturday, January 19 following the 5:00 PM bourse closing.

American Numismatic Association News

ANA Accepting Applications for New Executive Director

The American Numismatic Association is accepting applications for a new executive director to replace Acting Executive Director Kenneth Hallenbeck, who will step down once a replacement has been named.

"We are looking for an experienced executive director with organizational skills and proven administrative abilities," said ANA President Barry Stuppler. "The new executive director must be a proven leader who can quickly gain the confidence of the membership and support the direction set forth by the Board of Governors."

Stuppler said the executive director must have extensive knowledge of management skills with the ability to initiate, implement and successfully complete programs and objectives; train and motivate people, coordinate activities, speak publicly, and deal effectively with the public, private groups and community organizations.

Candidates must have considerable knowledge of and interest in the subject matter dealt with by the ANA or a similar hobby field. Applicants must be able to communicate effectively with the membership, understand and implement the ANA mission and objectives, and be able to convey that understanding and implementation to the Board of Governors, staff members, the members and others outside the numismatic field.

The minimum criteria is five years experience in managing a business, organization or nonprofit association, including staff supervision, financial reporting and strategic planning. The selected candidate must be willing to relocate to Colorado Springs, and be able to work on weekends and evenings.

Resumes must be submitted by Jan. 11, 2008 to Barry Stuppler, President, ANA, 5855 Topanga Canyon Blvd. Suite 330, Woodland Hills, CA 91367 or by email to barry@stuppler.com.

Information about the ANA mission, vision and strategic goals is attached and posted on the ANA website at www.money.org.

Former ANA Executive Director Chris Cipoletti was terminated with cause, effective 5:01 p.m. Oct. 16, 2007.

ANA Internships Available

The American Numismatic Association is accepting applications for two summer internships at ANA headquarters in Colorado Springs. Experienced young collectors, college or graduate students and numismatic professionals are encouraged to apply.

One individual selected for The Harry W. Bass, Jr. Numismatic Internship will conduct original numismatic research using ANA resources in conjunction with the renowned Harry W. Bass, Jr. numismatic collection and related resources.

Another individual will be selected for the ANA Numismatic Internship, and will work with the professional staff of the Edward C. Rochette Money Museum and Dwight N. Manley Numismatic Library, the Publication and Education departments, and help with Summer Seminar and the World's Fair of Money.

The deadline for internship applications is Feb. 16. Applications are reviewed by a selection committee, which will announce its selections Feb. 29. Interns, who must be at least 18, will stay in housing on the Colorado College campus, adjacent to the ANA.

Information and applications are available at www.money.org (click on "Internships" from the "Explore the World of Money" drop-down menu) or by calling the ANA Education Department at 719-482-9869.

Dwight Manley Donates World's First Illustrated Numismatic Book to ANA

A rare, 490-year old original copy of the first illustrated, printed numismatic book, Illustrium Imagines ("Images of the Illustrious"), has been donated to the American Numismatic Association by well-known collector, sports agent and real estate developer, Dwight N. Manley, of Newport Beach, California. The book was printed in 1517 in Rome, Italy, and contains 204 ornate woodcut illustrations from ancient Roman coins and medallions.

Manley purchased it for $8,050 in the November 1, 2007, rare book auction conducted by George Frederick Kolbe of Crestline, California. In the catalog, Kolbe described the book as "... of unparalleled importance, being only the second numismatic book ever published, and the first printed book substantially illustrating coins and medals ... A handsome publication, truly one of the greatest landmarks in the history of numismatic literature."

"This generous gift is unquestionably one of the most treasured volumes in any numismatic library collection," said ANA Acting Executive Director Ken Hallenbeck. "This becomes the oldest numismatic book in the world's largest numismatic lending library. It is a terrific addition to the ANA's Dwight N. Manley Library." (In 2003, the ANA Library was named in honor of Manley when he gratefully donated $250,000 to the Association as way of saying "thank you" for the $400 scholarship he received as a teenager in 1980 to attend an ANA Summer Seminar session.)

"The entire hobby continues to benefit from Dwight's magnanimous generosity. His extraordinary donation of an original edition of the world's very first illustrated coin book now becomes one of the distinctive works in the library named after him. The ANA is grateful for his years of loyal support," said ANA President Barry Stuppler.
