President's Message

by PNNA President Lisa Loos

I can't believe that summer is over ... as the popular saying goes, "All good things must come to an end."

Even though our summer weather did not cooperate, we still had plenty of activities to keep us busy.

June brought the official start of summer and the annual Summer Seminar in Colorado Springs, CO. The PNNA sponsors a scholarship to one adult and one YN to attend. This year's adult recipient was Jesse Torres, of the Boeing Employees Coin Club. I spoke to Jesse soon after he returned and he couldn't stop talking about the great experience and how cool it was to meet some of the most distinguished names in numismatics. His summary will be posted on the PNNA website when available.

In July, I gathered the board together for a meeting and BBQ. Thanks to our "Grill Master" Dennis Stevens, the food was almost as good as our meeting. We all had a good time and managed to discuss some great ideas. Please read and review the minutes for a recap of the meeting.

With August came the ANA World's Fair of Money in Chicago, IL. I have attended this show for the past 10 or so years, and I can't remember a bigger bourse floor ... it was HUGE!! Like always, a good contingent of North-westerners were there.

I usually do not like to toot my own horn in this column, however, I am today. A few weeks before the show, Scott and I were informed that we will be presented with the Numismatic Ambassador Award sponsored by Numismatic News. This award is very special to us as it truly comes from our peers; as you are nominated and voted on by current Ambassadors. The award was presented to us by David Harper, Editor of Numismatic News, during the Ambassador breakfast. Later in the convention, our own Katie Reinders, YN from the Willamette Coin Club and daughter of current PNNA board member, James, received the YN best-in-show exhibit award for her exhibit entitled, "Happy Birthday Oregon." (See photo on page 4.) A very good showing for the PNNA!!

As summer closes, fall begins with two big events. In September, PNNA once again had a booth at the Puyallup Fair in the Hobby Hall. A BIG KUDOS to Rick Schulz, Puyallup Fair Coordinator, who feverishly attended local club meetings to sign up volunteers. I believe all shifts were filled thanks to everyone who volunteered their time. This event would not be successful without our great support team. Also, I would like to thank Rick's wing man, Kevin Charbonneau, who willingly volunteered to help set up our booth and display backdrop. October brings us the Willamette Coin Club/PNNA co-sponsored convention in Portland, October 22-23 at the Lloyd Center DoubleTree Inn. Once again, the bourse will be sold out. Thanks to the show committee and the WCC members for making this happen.

That's it for now. Hope to see everyone in Portland.

PNNA Dues / Newsletter Access

PNNA membership dues are payable annually at the beginning of the year. It's not too early to send your 2012 dues to Rachel Irish, 101 West Prairie Center #323, Hayden, ID 83835. Reminder notices will be sent for those who haven't paid by December.

PayPal payments should be sent to sales@pnna.org, and there are payment buttons available on the PNNA website (click on "Membership"). If you would prefer to receive your newsletters by e-mail and/or web access, please notify Rachel and/or Eric Holcomb. There is currently no discount for this option.

Fall Convention Dates/Times/Info

by Larry Gaye, General Chairman

Well here we are again, the 7th Annual Willamette-PNNA coin show is on track to open to the public, October 22-23, 2011. This has been a very successful show in the Northwest thanks to the hard work of Scott and Lisa Loos as well as the entire Willamette Coin Club.

The show will open to dealers on Friday, October 21 from 3:00 PM until 6:00 PM. Early Birders will also be allowed to enter when the dealers enter and may pick up their Early Bird Pass on Friday, which will cover the entire weekend. Setup and Early Bird entry will continue on Saturday morning at 8:00 AM.

The Willamette Coin Club will be offering a free entry to all visitors who take MAX to the venue; the $2.00 entry fee will be waived and they will still receive two free tickets to the hourly drawing.

We hope to see all PNNA/Willamette members there to welcome their fellow collectors.

Dealer set up:

Friday, October 21, 3:00 - 6:00 PM.

Saturday, October 22, 8:00 - 10:00 AM.

Public entry:

Saturday, October 22, 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM.

Sunday, October 23, 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM.

Other convention information:

- The expanded bourse will likely be sold out!
- There will be an expanded exhibit area on one side of the room near the entrance. Please bring your exhibits even if you didn't contact the WCC in advance (however, cases may be limited). PNNA chief judge Eric Holcomb will be available to consult, and there may be judged exhibit awards.
- Walt Ostromecki will again conduct the popular YN treasure hunt.
- There will be free Boy Scout and Girl Scout clinics on Saturday, essentially the same as last year. All the details are on a flyer available on the PNNA website, or visit <http://collect3.com>.
- At least one educational talk is planned.
- Information on souvenirs is not available at this time, so you'll have to attend the show!
- The hotel room block at the Lloyd Center DoubleTree may be sold out, but there are other hotels within a reasonable distance.

PNNA-Willamette Fall Convention Young Numismatist/ANA Program

In addition to the scout clinics, there will also be a youth and family "KID'S ZONE" table inside the show which will provide youth, families and non-collectors with all sorts of FREE hobby introduction information and educational materials. In addition, the Kid's Zone table will sponsor a FREE youth educational money-treasure hunt activity. The 'coin treasure' will include a variety of coins attached to informative-educational cards such as: Indian cents, 1943 steel cents, modern Lincoln cents, old buffalo nickels, U.S. Mint blank planchet/Lincoln cent, foreign currency, etc.

Youth (ages 9 and up) may also have the opportunity to play "Deal or No Deal - the Numismatic version" for taking home one of approximately 20 U.S. coin prizes. A pre-qualification test is required. A theme for this year's quiz will be announced in advance at the show. Parents are permitted to assist their children in this learning experience.

The table will also serve as an ANA information site for members and potential new members. A show special ANA rate for new members for the online version of The Numismatist will be offered by ANA Vice President Walt Ostromecki. A special youth rate, for those 23 and under, will also be offered. Ostromecki will also address questions or concerns from the ANA membership and the public on Association matters.

In Memoriam

The PNNA regrets to report the deaths of PNNA coin dealers Ed Leitner (on April 28) and Mike O'Hara (in July). This is a great loss to the Northwest collecting community. Both were respected dealers, and Mike was well-known for his coin shop in Silverdale, WA.

Deadline for submission of material for 1st Quarter 2012 Nor'wester: December 15, 2011.

Please send ad copy to Eric Holcomb (e-mail Eric @Holcomb.com), and payment to the PNNA treasurer or to Rachel Irish. Call Eric (541-647-1021) for info.

Puyallup Fair Thank-You!

It's Over! – The PNNA sponsored the annual coin exhibit and information table in the Hobby Hall from September 9-25, with assistance from local coin clubs. We had handouts including magazines, event calendars, a coin club list and coins for junior collectors!

Rick Schulz, Puyallup Fair Hobby Hall volunteer coordinator, reports that “We were fortunate to have a whole display case this year, twice as much as 2010 and with the help and contributions from a number of PNNA members we were able to fill it up with a wide range of numismatic material. I particularly would like to acknowledge the work of Kevin Charboneau, Gary Wilson and Brian Deren who helped design this year's theme and put it all together.” Also, “Fair attendance has been up from last year. Higher attendance means more kids searching for their birth year in the penny trays. Every year a particular date gets hit pretty hard. This year it has been 1999-2002. It's great engaging with the kids (of all ages) and answering questions of all kinds.”

Thanks, Rick, for all your efforts, and thanks to all the volunteers from the following Puget Sound clubs: Boeing Employees' Coin Club, Olympia Coin Club, Tacoma-Lakewood Coin Club, Seattle Numismatic Society and the King County Coin Club. Rick says there were also a couple of volunteers from Oregon!

No volunteer is knowledgeable about all aspects of numismatics – if your question wasn't answered or if you were unable to attend the Fair, please e-mail your question to info@pnna.org, and it will be directed to a local expert for a response.

Exhibits at the 2011 Conventions

Now is the time to build your exhibits for next spring's PNNA convention in Seattle (Tukwila). There are also opportunities to show exhibits at the Everett show (November) and the Boeing show (January); use these shows as proving grounds for your entries. Don't forget that the best exhibitor at the PNNA spring convention earns $200 toward the expense of taking the winning exhibit to the ANA summer convention in the same year (the ANA will be in Philadelphia in 2012).

A Great Show in Chicago!

The ANA celebrated its 120th anniversary in the city of its founding with the largest show in Association history. Visitors and dealers alike agreed it was one of the ANA's most spectacular shows, as well. To view images from the event, visit www.worldsfairsofmoney.com.

ANA Convention, August 16-20, 2011 in Chicago, IL

The American Numismatic Association (ANA) World's Fair of Money (WFOM) Convention held in Chicago, IL on August 16-20, 2011, at the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center was one of the largest and most successful shows we ever attended. As a convention site, it is hard to beat this location with all the hotels about a half block away, free hotel shuttles to nearby O'Hare airport, an excellent convention center and the Rosemont Police Department (under the direction of Positive Protection, Inc.) keeping the show very safe.

A huge thank you to the ANA staff (26 attended), especially Convention Director Rhonda Scurek; President Mishler and the Board; the host Chicago Coin Club (CCC) and their Chair Robert Leonard, along with all the volunteers and workers. The CCC had about 100 volunteers who were very noticeable with their blue shirts. Thanks also to the National Volunteers, exhibitors, judges, educational speakers for their tireless work; along with the numismatic press, media, sponsors and patrons for their many contributions. Like all ANA conventions, this show "in particular" had so much going on that it was impossible to do everything you wanted unless you attended multiple days. The bourse had around 600 tables which included 20 coin clubs, the U.S. Mint, Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP), and other mints and bureaus. Thanks to Stacks Bowers for having a wonderful multi-session auction. The sale featured selections from the Harry W. Bass, Jr. collection, along with other important consignments.

The ANA Museum Showcase featured many rare items brought by the Association and the Smithsonian brought their special exhibit. Several ANA members also brought exhibits for the ANA showcase area. One featured dozens of cases filled with rare Illinois National Banknotes and another featured a rare Ides of March exhibit. The 43rd Treasurer of the U.S., Rosa "Rosie" Gumataotao Rios, attended the opening ceremonies and helped to cut the ribbon. The Tuesday Shedd Aquarium visit and dinner, along with the Friday night banquet were spectacular.

Thanks again to everyone for their many contributions who helped to make this a very special convention that had something for everyone who attended. We hope to see you at the next two NMS events which will be held in Pittsburgh, PA on October 13-15, 2011 and Denver, CO on May 10-12, 2012. The next WFOM will be held in Philadelphia, PA on August 7-11, 2012. Yours in Numismatics, John and Nancy Wilson, ANA National Volunteers.

Report by James Reinders.

The awards banquet at the Chicago convention was on Friday evening, August 19, 2011.

PNNA and Willamette Coin Club member Katie Reinders was awarded the "BEST YN EXHIBIT" award at the banquet, which carries a Summer Seminar Scholarship as a prize. Katie's exhibit, "Happy Birthday Oregon," was an updated and expanded version of what she exhibited at the PNNA Spring convention in Tukwila. Comments from the judges at PNNA were very helpful in Katie's rework to beat out some other incredible YN exhibits at the summer show in Chicago. Cliff Mishler and she talked for a long time about her exhibit earlier in the day and again after the award.

Walt Ostromecki was installed as the new ANA Vice President. Walt will join the PNNA and WCC at the October show in Portland as usual.

PNNA Board Meeting Minutes

9 July 2011, North Bend, Washington

Members in Attendance: Lisa Loos, President; Danny Bisgaard, Vice President; Michael Labosier, Secretary; Scott Loos, Treasurer; Gawain O'Connor, Director; Rick Schulz, Director; Dennis Stevens, Director; Dan Vornbrock, Director.

Members Absent: John Enges, Director; Larry Gaye, Past President; Mark Gruner, Director; William McKivor, Director; James Reinders, Director; Dale Reubish, Director; Bruce Wonder, Director.

Guests in Attendance: None.

The board meeting was called to order by President Lisa Loos at approximately 1:15 p.m.

Secretary's Report: Mike called for any changes or corrections to the minutes of the April 9, 2011 board and membership meetings as published on the PNNA website. The minutes were approved as published (Danny/Scott). Mike reported that the PNNA had received an email inquiry from the Tri-Cities Visitor & Convention bureau regarding the possibility of PNNA sponsored coin shows in that area. Mike will hold on to the contact information, but will reply that the club has no plans for such a show in the foreseeable future.

Treasurer's Report: Scott reviewed the PNNA's 2011 financial activity through June 30. Revenues for the first half of the year totaled $34,801 and expenses were $31,075, with convention revenue and expenses accounting for most of the totals. The club held cash balances of $69,755 at June 30, mostly invested in CDs and a money market account. Included in the cash total was $3,383 held for future Token Congress use. Fund balances at June 30 consisted of $58,329 held in the general fund, $3,700 in the life member fund, and $7,725 in the Bob Everett Memorial fund. The Treasurer's report was accepted by the board (Gawain/Danny).

Committee Reports:

Convention – Scott reviewed a summary of the financial results of this year's Spring Convention. The net profit to the PNNA was $8,140. Scott noted that this was our second year using a new decorator, and that they again did a good job. There was then a discussion of host club responsibilities and costs, the costs and benefits of the hospitality suite, and new possibilities for next year's convention. Possibilities under consideration include participation by ANACS, video recordings of numismatic theater presentations, and a headline speaker such as Richard Doty of the Smithsonian. New publicity ideas were also discussed. Mike reported that attendance at the 2011 convention was down just slightly from the year before – 1,150 vs.

1,200. Having a cash machine available proved to be worthwhile and will likely be repeated next year. The 2012 Spring Convention will be held at the Tukwila Community Center April 13-15. Mike noted that more volunteers will be needed for next year's show. In the course of early planning work before the next board meeting, Mike will work on a list of volunteer needs.

Membership – Dennis is working on a kiosk that could be set up at shows, touting the benefits of PNNA membership. Dennis also proposed conducting a survey of the current membership to assess satisfaction levels and solicit ideas for other services the PNNA might provide that would be of value to members. Dennis plans to have the survey ready by the Boeing show in early 2012.

Outreach – Lisa reported for James that he will continue to work on scouting activities and hopes to build a scouting clinic at the Seattle show as strong as the one he has built in Oregon. Rick provided an update on the PNNA club representative program, which is off to a slow start but worth some further effort. Rick is building a list of contacts in the member clubs and will pursue opportunities to reach out to the clubs to build the representatives network. Rick also noted that sign-ups for shifts at the Puyallup Fair were going well. He is looking for more foreign coins to give away at the fair. Rick is also continuing to look into the cent elongating machine that could be used for promotional purposes.

Education – Scott reviewed the financial results of the counterfeit detection seminar sponsored jointly by the PNNA and the ANA. The sold out seminar netted about $1,000 for the PNNA, about equal to the cost of seminar scholarships issued by the club. Scott noted that the ANA is discontinuing the joint-sponsorship program. The PNNA may consider sponsoring future seminars on its own, or explore if partnering with the ANS is a possibility.

Election – In Bill's absence, Lisa reported that he will working on the ballot for next year's election. Lisa mentioned that the Vice President position will be open and asked the board members to consider suitable candidates.

Publication – In Dale's absence, Lisa mentioned that Eric will be issuing a new coin show calendar.

Award – Danny led a discussion of the new newsletter award. There is a need to define the award structure and better publicize the opportunity. One idea is to award a certificate to the winning club and a cash prize or other tangible gift to the winning newsletter editor. This will be evaluated further by the committee, with the goal of starting the award period in 2012 and presenting the first award in April 2013. Regarding the PNNA's annual scholarships to the ANA's summer seminar, a motion was approved to re-define the scholarship award from a flat $1,000 to the amount needed to cover tuition and double-occupancy room and board in the dorm (Scott/Danny).

Exhibit – Dan will be working on a “People’s Choice” exhibit award. He plans to create a ballot box for use at the 2012 Spring Convention and to have ballots available to be handed out with convention admission tickets. Dan will be looking for volunteers to help watch over the exhibits during the convention.

Old Business:

By-Laws revision and Rental Agreement revision – No further progress or updates to report.

Branding/Logo – The outreach and membership committees will explore whether a contest should be held, or if ideas should be solicited via the proposed membership survey.

Elongated cent machine – Still under consideration, but no progress to report at this point.

New Business:

A motion was passed (Gawain/Dennis) providing that the PNNA's ballot for the ANA Board of Governors' election be voted in favor of Walter Ostromecki for Vice President (the only contested race).

A motion was passed (Scott/Danny) directing that the PNNA support each of the three annual ANA shows at the Patron ($50) level.

A motion was passed (Scott/Danny) authorizing the purchase of up to two new projector screens for use with the club's projectors for numismatic presentations, at a cost not to exceed $300 in total.

Rick asked about the PNNA's speakers' bureau. The consensus was that the list posted on the PNNA website was out of date, and that work will be needed to improve this area of service.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 3:15 p.m.

Michael Labosier, Secretary, Recording

Upcoming Board Meeting

The next meeting of the PNNA board will be on Saturday, October 22nd at 6:00 PM in Portland, Oregon at the annual PNNA-Willamette Coin Club Fall Convention and Coin Show.

If you have any ideas or suggestions for the PNNA board to consider, please submit them to the president or secretary in advance of the meeting.

MacNeil Sculpture in Portland

by Gawain O'Connor

Last October on a Sunday afternoon after the coin show, my wife and I made a pilgrimage to Washington Park in Portland to see the sculpture “Coming of the White Man.” First we found the Sacajawea statue, then the Lewis and Clark Monument, and finally spotted our goal near the Holocaust Memorial. It was a short walk from the parking lot down to the glade where it faces east, confronting history’s manifest destiny. The Native Americans of the Multnomah tribe are said to be looking at either Lewis and Clark in their canoes on the Columbia River, or at white settlers driving ox teams and wagons up the hills below them. The work was completed in 1904 by Hermon Atkins MacNeil, the artist best known to numismatists for designing the Standing Liberty Quarter in 1916. His earliest medal was for the Pan American Exposition of 1901 in Buffalo, New York. He is also known for the American Numismatic Society’s 1926 Manhattan Tercentenary medal and the Society of Medalists third issue, “Prayer for Rain” Hopi medal of 1931.

MacNeil was a successful artist and had sculptures commissioned throughout his career and across the country. His last was the Pony Express memorial in Saint Joseph, Missouri in 1940.

If you are visiting Seattle, you can see another of MacNeil’s works - the Thomas Burke memorial in Volunteer Park. (All his works can be located with the help of the website <http://hermonatkinsmacneil.com>.)
